Planning permission for swimming pool

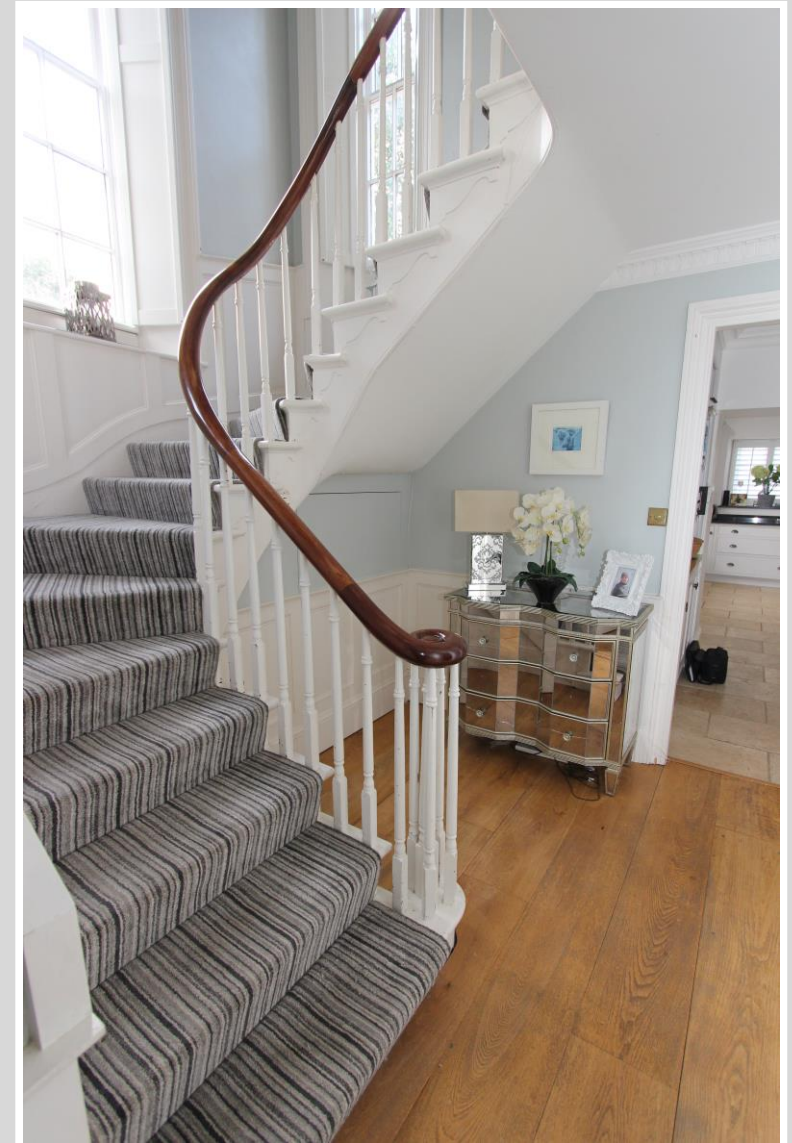

Set in an elevated position, this imposing Victorian Gothic Revival home is quite unique in the island. It evokes a sense of grandeur with large spacious rooms, high ceilings and large windows allowing the light to flood in. This distinctive property is characterised by its beautiful lacy 'gingerbread' trimmed barge-boards, steeply pitched roof and lancet windows.

There is a 28ft entrance hall with a sweeping staircase with mahogany handrail leading to the upper floors. There are five reception rooms ideal for the growing family to have their own space. The 31ft kitchen family room is just perfect for cosy suppers or the elegant dining room for more formal entertaining.

Externally there is an electric gated entrance, a large terrace perfect for al fresco dining and which enjoys the last of the setting sun, the gardens lead to the west with a decked area set in an elevated position over-looking the countryside to the sea.

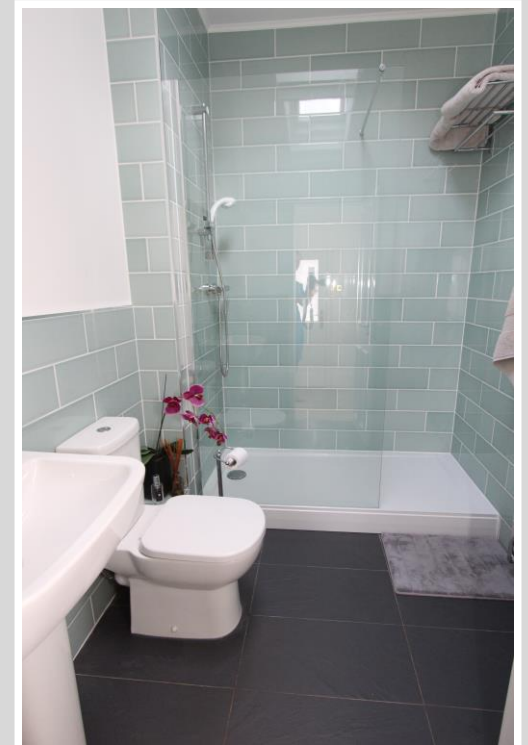

In addition to the main house there is a separate one bedroom cottage suitable for an au pair, extended family or as extra income.

The location is perfect for the many activities enjoyed in St. Ouen's Bay including surfing, bird watching on the nature reserve, golf, wind surfing, land sailing, paragliding or even just walking and enjoying a meal in the many restaurants that this stunning bay has to offer.

The village is just one minute's drive away and the airport just 5kms.
